Dear Matteo:

Yes, it is my understanding that the filing of Mr. Koppe's appeal has a suspensive effect on the BAKC decision to exclude him from its rolls. Further, as previously stated, I intend to maintain Mr. Koppe as the Co-Lawyer for Mr. NUON Chea until and unless the BAKC decision is upheld by the Cambodian Court of Appeal.

Moreover, Mr. Koppe has informed me that he has also been undertaking all the steps necessary for his readmission to the Amsterdam Bar. He stated that he would have been sworn-in at the monthly ceremony in Amsterdam on 14 November but since he will be in Phnom Penh for the Case 002/02 judgement delivery, he has requested that the ceremony be conducted at the next opportunity, which will be on 12 December. I believe he has included this explanation in his filing before the Cambodia Court of Appeal.

Best regards,

Isaac.

Dear Isaac,

Thank you for your email and the information therein.

Further to the filing of this appeal, and as you previously indicated in relation to this matter (E378/8/11), would you therefore continue to maintain Mr. Koppe as the International Co-Lawyer for Mr. NUON Chea in Case 002 until the matter is settled by the Cambodian Court of Appeal? In this regard, does the filing of the appeal have a suspensive effect on the original decision of the BAKC to exclude Mr. Koppe?

Do you also have any further information on whether Mr. Koppe is at the same time also applying for readmission to the BAKC, as previously mentioned in E378/8/11?

Regards

Matteo

Dear Matteo:

I hope this mail finds you well. I would be grateful if you could inform the Trial Chamber Judges that Mr. Victor Koppe has now filed his appeal against the BAKC's decision to exclude him from the roll of foreign lawyers eligible to practice in Cambodia.

Best regards,

Isaac.
