Subsection 1 Appeal

Regulation 57 Appeal

For the purposes of rule 150, the appellant shall file a notice of appeal which shall state:

- (a) The name and number of the case;
- (b) The date of the decision of conviction or acquittal, sentence or reparation order appealed against;
- (c) Whether the appeal is directed against the whole decision or part thereof;
- (d) The relief sought.

Regulation 58 Document in support of the appeal

1. Having filed an appeal in accordance with regulation 57, the appellant shall file a document in support of the appeal within 90 days of notification of the relevant decision.
2. The document in support of the appeal shall contain the grounds of appeal. Each ground of appeal shall be divided into two parts:
 - (a) The ground of appeal;
 - (b) The legal and/or factual reasons in support of the ground of appeal.
3. The legal and/or factual reasons referred to in sub-regulation 2 (b) shall be set out in separate paragraphs. Reference shall be made to the relevant part of the record or any other document or source of information as regards any factual issue. Each legal reason shall be set out together with reference to any relevant article, rule, regulation or other applicable law, and any authority cited in support thereof. Where applicable, the finding or ruling challenged in the decision shall be identified, with specific reference to the page and paragraph number.

4. Grounds of appeal may be advanced cumulatively or in the alternative.
5. The document in support of the appeal shall not exceed 100 pages.

Regulation 59

Response

1. A participant may file a response within 60 days of notification of the document in support of the appeal described in regulation 58 as follows:

(a) Each ground of appeal shall be answered separately, stating whether it is opposed, in whole or in part, together with the grounds put forward in support thereof; it shall also be stated whether the relief sought is opposed, in whole or in part, together with the grounds of opposition in support thereto;

(b) When facts are relied on that are not already set out in the appeal or the document in support of the appeal, reference shall be made to the relevant part of the record or any other document or source of information;

(c) Each legal reason relied on in support of the response shall be set out together with reference to any relevant article, rule, regulation or other applicable law, and any authority cited in support thereof.

2. The response shall not exceed 100 pages. To the extent possible, it shall be set out and numbered in the same order as in the document described in regulation 58.
