Questions-Answers

Q: Please describe your background before 17 April 1975. Where did you live, and what did you do?

A: I lived in Kampong Tralach (កំពង់ត្រឡាច) in Kampong Chhnang province; I joined the revolution in 1968 because my elder brother who had joined Khmer Rouge earlier sent a letter home, and the village authority intercepted it. At that time, the LON Nol (លទំ នល់) soldiers wanted to arrest me. My elder sister NOEM Sokoeun (នឹម សុគ្គើន) (who worked at the salt fields in the Khmer Rouge regime and is currently living in Daun Troek (ដូនត្រីក) village, Samlaut (សំឡុត) district, Battambang province) and I joined the revolution. I was sent to Aoral (ຊື່ກື່ໝໍ) mountain in Kampong Speu province to search for rice in the villages through Khmer Rouge networks to supply Khmer Rouge soldiers. After that, I was assigned to be a medic. Later on they learned that I could sing, and they had me join an arts section near Chhreav (วิมิโ) in Kampong Speu province. In 1970, I sang in the villages; after that, they sent me to a main office in Kampong Thom province to the arts group of Zone 304 to prepare to go to the Centre. I sang in Kampong Thom until 1974; then they selected three people to go to Vietnam. The person who took me there was Uncle IENG Sary (អៀងសារី); IENG Thirith (អៀង ធីវិទ្ធ) was already staying in Vietnam. IENG Thirith controlled the Khmer Rouge radio in Vietnam. At that time, I sang on radio until May 1975, when I came to work at the Ministry of Propaganda near Wat Phnom (វត្តភ្នំ). HOU Nim (ហ៊្លី នឹម) was the Minister of Propaganda.

Q: After May 1975 when you worked at Propaganda, what did they have you do? A: I worked at the Ministry of Propaganda; they had me sing and read on radio. São (សៅ) was the chairman of the arts group, and Mâm (ម៉ីមី) and Kèv (កែវ) were the deputies. I had known Sâseak (សរសៀត), Ta Sot (តាសុត)'s wife since we were in the same arts group in Kampong Cham.

Q: What content did you read on radio?

A: I read international news and national news about building dams and canals. I never read news about the sweeping clean [ការបោសសម្លាត] of prisoners of war.

Q: Did they have you read news about the arrests of enemies or the arrests of other people?

A: I never read about that.

Q: Who wrote those articles?

A: São wrote the songs, and Phan (18) wrote the news articles.

Q: Up to what year did you work at Propaganda?

A: I worked there until 1976. I did not see any disappearances or arrests during that era.

Q: Where did you go after 1976?

A: After that, I stopped working; I stayed at K-8 (n-G). At K-8, I looked after my child, and I was always sick. K-8 was a unit growing vegetables for sale at the market for foreigners living in Cambodia. I did not remember the chairman of K-8. At K-8, I lived in a house with two families: the family of Toeung (r) and his wife Phat (n) and my family with my husband named Lin (n). Toeung is still alive, but I do not know where he is living; he was also a bodyguard with my husband.

Q: Why did you leave the Ministry of Propaganda for K-8? A: I went to work at K-8 because my husband took me there to live with him.

Q: What year did you get married?

A: I got married in August 1975. At that time, Angkar (អង្គការ) organized the wedding; my husband's boss proposed the marriage. My husband's boss may have been Hung (ហ៊ុង) or POL Pot. Later on HOU Nim, the chief at Propaganda, agreed with the marriage. K-8 was under the control of my husband and was subordinate Office 870.

Q: What year was Lin promoted to be the Chairman of Office 870?

A: After Pàng (ប៉ង់) was arrested in 1977, they promoted my husband to replace Pàng, who was the Chairman of Office 870 or S-71 (ស-៧១) -- I am not sure because 870 or S-71 had the same meaning.

Q: Why was Pang arrested?

A: I do not know.

Q: Before Lin replaced Pang, what did Lin do?

A: Lin was POL Pot's messenger.

Q: After you married Lin, did you visit K-1 (n-9)?

A: I never did; I went to look for vegetables near that office once, and I saw the wife of NUON Chea (§SI), the wife of KHIEU Samphan (12) tins), the wife of Cheam (III), and the wife of Tan (III) cooking at K-1.

Q: What kind of places were K-1 and K-3 (fi-sin)?

A: K-1 and K-3 were the residences and the work places of the Uncles: Uncle NUON Chea, POL Pot, and KHIEU Samphan. I saw them coming and going at that location.

Q: Did Lin ever tell you about his work at K-1?

A: He never told me about his work at K-1, but he told me each time when Uncle POL Pot went to the provinces. At K-3, I saw POL Pot, NUON Chea and KHIEU Samphan having meals together. As for IENG Sary, I never saw him. I visited K-3 only once; I saw the Uncles having a meal together. When I visited K-3, I stayed there one night because my husband did not come to visit me. Lin always escorted POL Pot. I also saw the three Uncles staying at K-1.

Q: To whom was Lin subordinate?

A: Lin was under POL Pot. I knew this because Lin told me that Lin worked only with Uncle POL Pot. Lin escorted POL Pot to Battambang province; besides that, I did not have a grasp.

Q: Did Lin receive instructions or orders from KHIEU Samphan?

A: I did not know because Lin never told me. Lin never escorted KHIEU Samphan or NUON Chea anywhere because those Uncles had their respective bodyguards.

Q: Did you know about the arrest of HOU Nim?

A: HOU Nim was arrested in 1977 after I left for K-8. Lin interrogated me many times because I had worked with HOU Nim. São was also arrested in 1977, after the arrest of HOU Nim.

Q: Why did Lin interrogate you about this matter?

A: Because Lin had read the confessions of the various people who had implicated me, and Lin told me that they had implicated me. At that time, Lin suspected that I was linked to a CIA network with HOU Nim, and he interrogated me many times. Each time he threatened me, I cried. He asked me, "How did they indoctrinate you?" ("They" meaning HOU Nim and Comrade São). At that time, I answered that I did not know, that they just told me to try hard to work to serve the country. At that time, I was always frightened, and Lin told me, "If it were not for Uncle POL Pot not letting you be taken away, you would have been taken away." After fleeing from the Yuon, he told me that if I had not left Phnom Penh, I would clearly have been CIA. After that, he believed me. If I had been CIA, Lin would have arrested me and put me in prison. Lin said that the prisons were Ta Lei (การุป) prison and Stoeng Meanchey (ผู้มีบารณ์แบ) prison, the places where they farmed paddies. At that time, because Lin was afraid of being involved with me, he asked for a divorce, but I did not agree to get divorced because I thought we did not have any problems.

Q: Did KHIEU Samphan have any influence on Lin?

A: I did not have a grasp. I never heard Lin talk about the roles and responsibilities of KHIEU Samphan, and I never heard KHIEU Samphan use him to do anything: it was only Uncle Pol Pot that Lin had ever told me about, about POL Pot ordering him to do this and to do that.

Q: Did you hear KHIEU Samphan speak on the radio?

A: I do not remember.

Q: Who worked under Lin? Where are they living now?

A: Lin stayed near the old Assembly and his workplace was 870. Tan (file) is currently living in Samlaut; Soth (file) is still alive; Chhiv (file) is living in Samlaut (he is 1.60 meters tall, stocky, and dark-complexioned); Sīn (file) died in 1984-1985; Kou (file) was killed by a landmine; Sàng (file) (an ethnic) is living in Au Ampil (file), Tuol Pongro (file), Malai (file) district, Banteay Meanchey province; Sâm (file) (an ethnic), unknown if he is dead or still alive; Chhun (file) (an ethnic) is perhaps living in his wife's village in Kampong Cham; Chhieng (file) is living in Preah Vihear province (his younger sibling THEA Ros (file) is living in the same village with me); I do not remember Hoeun (file); I have heard of Khân (file); I do not remember Khăn (file) or Văn (file); I do not remember Torn (file) either; Cheam (file) is currently living at his house opposite the Malai District Hall; and Phàng (file) who worked in the K-1 telegraph section is currently living in Au Unluok (file), Phoom Proek (file) district.

Q: What did Tan do at that time?

A: He was a bodyguard with Lin.

Q: Did Lin attend meetings with the Uncles?

A: Lin was POL Pot's messenger, so when POL Pot went to have a meeting somewhere, he always escorted him.

Q: After you delivered the baby, what did you do?

A: I did not do any work because I often got sick, and I just looked after the baby.

Q: When you worked at K-8, did any people disappear?

A: At that time, Yân (this) (in charge of the food storehouse) disappeared. After that, they also took his wife Yorn (this) away.

Q: Did people disappear at Lin's K-1?

A: I heard that a person named Lat (ឡាត់) disappeared, but I did not know what position Lat held. I heard that Lat was removed to B-20 (ប-២០) in Kampong Cham province.

O: Were you frightened at that time?

A: I was frightened, I was more frightened when Lin changed my house. When I was sick, I stayed at K-8, and Lin took me to K-11 (ñ-99). After that, I was moved to stay at K-7 (ñ-11), and then I was moved back to K-8.

Q: Where did the Uncles' wives live?

A: The Uncles' wives followed the Uncles; sometimes they cooked at K-3, and sometimes at K-1.

Q: Up until when did Lin have control of 870?

A: Lin had control of 870 until we fled from the Yuon.

Q: Did you ever hear the name SOEU Vasy (អៀ វ៉ាស៊ី) alias Doeun (មឿន)?

A: I heard the name Doeun and also heard that they had arrested him, but I did not know if they arrested Doeun before or after Lin took control of 870.

Q: Did you ever hear the name PHOK Chhay (ភោគ រាយ)?

A: I heard the name, and I heard that he was arrested in 1977, and I also heard that the person named Phum (n), Pang's Deputy, was also arrested before Lin replaced Pang.

Q: Did you know who worked with KHIEU Samphan?

A: I have totally forgotten.

Q: Did you ever meet KHIEU Samphan?

A: I saw him momentarily at K-3, and I went to visit foreign countries with him such as China, Korea, Yugoslavia and Romania in 1974; the people who went on those trips included KHIEU Samphan and TIV OI (FI HM).
