SUBMISSION

1. In relation to the upcoming Trial Management Meeting scheduled to begin on 11 December 2013, and further to the Co-Prosecutors' Submission Regarding the Scope of Case 002/02 and Trial Schedule filed on 5 December 2011, the Co-Prosecutors submit herewith as confidential Annex A a plan for the trial of the crime sites that were proposed for inclusion in Case 002/02, including a tentative or preliminary list of the witnesses, civil parties and experts that the Co-Prosecutors intend to request for each proposed crime site and trial segment. Annex A is filed at this time to assist the Chamber in evaluating the length of time that would be required for the trial of Case 002/02, if the crime sites and events proposed by the Co-Prosecutors were included, and to give the Chamber and parties an initial indication of the witnesses that may be requested by the Co-Prosecutors for such trial. The Co-Prosecutors note that their review and assessment of necessary witness testimony is ongoing, and a definitive witness list will be filed after the scope of Case 002/02 is determined and dates established by the Chamber for the filing of witness and document lists by all parties.

2. In addition to witnesses and civil parties relating to the proposed Case 002/02 crime base, Annex A includes witnesses and experts relating to the role of the Accused, existence of a Joint Criminal Enterprise and specific CPK policies who were not heard in the Case 002/01 trial. The suggested time allocation for each witness, civil party or expert appears in bold immediately prior to the name of the person. A total of 96 court days would be required for the hearing of the witnesses, civil parties and experts proposed by the Co-Prosecutors in confidential Annex A.

Respectfully Submitted,
