... rank a little at a time. The minister(s) kept going along, because today the United Nations does not recognize the Khmer Rouge, because Prime Minister Long Boret ឡុងប៊ុរេត refused to sign. Now the United Nations still uses the old flag.

According to his responses, he heard all of the above words of incitement from one person, Mon ម៉ុន, a 1st Lieutenant in the Defense Ministry. Details: Mon ម៉ុន, 1st Lieutenant, wife's name Nhâ ញ៉ា, is now at Trapeang Thnoat Chum Tbaung ត្រពាំងត្នោតជំពូង in Unit 4 កង ៤.

This is all that was in his responses.

Niñ Nhn និល ញ៉ន, age 23 (youth), father's name Niñ Nou និល នូ, mother's name Sâm Kim សំ គីម, born in Chieu Kdei ជៀវក្តី, Ta Au តា អូ Subdistrict, Kirivong គីរីវង្ស District (Takeo Province). Was a soldier, a 2nd Lieutenant, at the Kâmbaul Fort បន្ទាយ កំបូល. After 17 April, came out to his birth place, District 109, and Angkar sent him to Ta Phlem តាផ្លេម Subdistrict, District 105 up until now.

This one confessed that his activities in Ta Phlem តាផ្លេម Subdistrict were: stealing coconuts one time; cutting and stealing sugar cane to eat two times, stealing and cooking potatoes one time. The subdistrict militia arrested him and brought him in and put in the reeducation site. He used the pretext of feigning to be sick until one day when he secretly tried to break the door lock. His intent after breaking the lock was to run back to 109 and then to go to Vietnam right away. The next day when the militia let him out to work, he saw a good opportunity and ran off. When he got to the border at Ang Tâ Saom, the militia arrested him. This is all that was in the responses.
