Report

[I] would like to report to respected district party 105, as the following:

On 31-1-78 at 2pm in the afternoon, [I] re-captured one head of the enemies named contemptible Măn Seng (ម៉ាន់ សេង), after three months of his escape from Srè Ronaung commune. On that date as shown above, this contemptible man traveled in disguise among our people who were heading to the paddy fields. When [he] had arrived at Ang Ta Sau Tauch (អង្គពាសូតូច) village of Srè Ronaung commune, he came to contact his wife. When asked for clarification, he said he is currently living in Khna Tey (ខ្នារទៃ) village of Ang Ta Saom commune since the Youn [Vietnamese] invasion – i.e he fled Srè Ronaung commune to district 109 and then from this district 109 to Khna Tey.

I wish to further clarify that this contemptible Măn Seng was a veteran soldier who escaped from Takeo town since 1974.

With high respect/consideration of the duties of the Revolution.

(I) would like to report to respected party for your information on the activities of the enemy against the Collective Regime within Srè Ronaung commune's Youth Concentration Unit, as follows:

- 1) Kim Ngäk (គឹម ង៉ាក់), 18 years old, a Chinese ethnic whose activity was that he has escaped from the Concentration Unit to meet his mother which caused a conflict to the Collective Regime. He refused to do labor works. He said he will not do labor work at all [and] he can not live with/under the Revolution.
- 2) Leang Bunthorn (លាង ប៊ុនថុន), 19 years old, a Chinese ethnic who refused to work promptly during his works on the paddy dike system. When arrived and while going for carrying soils, he cried and he did not come back until 10:30. On 4/6/78, he threw away a plate of rice and a plate of Samlâ (soup), and he said that he can not live under such a collective regime of the Revolution.
- 3) Sok Nam (សុខ ណាំ), 24 years old, a Chinese ethnic who has said that "Ănh (អញ) (Note of translator: the word Anh in Khmer means I in English – but is usually used when angry), can not live under the revolution like other people did, because [this regime] was very strict and [people] are not free" – that's why [he] did not do his labor work.
- 4) Kim An Huo (គឹម អាន ហ្គួ), 29 years old, a Chinese ethnic. About his activity: this contemptible men threw away sales and further said that: Ănh [I] have been living under the revolution for 2-3 years, and [he alleged that] he was never been [promoted] to work as a cook but those who were promoted only those who were their partisans. He is

[a former] sergeant police officer. Kim An Huo's purpose was to poison the whole youth unit. Clarification: the contemptible Kim An Huo was a spy and he is a repeated conflict maker. As the above report, would you please the Party makes your decision so that we [will] implement it.

Srè Ronaung,
