SUBJECT: REQUEST FOR INFORMATION CONCERNING DISAGREEMENTS RECORDED ON 7 FEBRUARY 2013 AND 22 FEBRUARY 2013¹

1. On 18 July 2014, the International CIJ received a letter from the Co-Lawyers for Suspect Meas Muth ("Suspect's Lawyers"), requesting information on the general nature of the disagreements between the National and the International Co-Investigating Judges signed on 7 and 22 February 2013 ("Disagreements"), referred to in the Notification Concerning Suspect's Requests to Access the Case File and Participate in the Judicial Investigation (D82) and the Full Introductory Submission and Supporting Material (D82/2) ("Notification").² The Suspect's Lawyers further enquired whether the Disagreements are currently before the Pre-Trial Chamber.
2. All Disagreements are strictly confidential ex parte matters except as provided in Internal Rule 72(4)(b). Accordingly, the International CIJ is not in a position to inform you of their content or general nature. Reference to such Disagreements in OCIJ decisions is purely formal references underpinning signature by a single judge and in order to display respect for relevant time periods.
3. For your information, the Disagreements have not been brought before the Pre-Trial Chamber and the time for such referral prescribed by Internal Rule 72(2) has expired.

¹ Case File No. 003-D82/3/1, Request for information concerning disagreements recorded on 7 February 2013 and 22 February 2013, 17 July 2014.
