The Pre-Trial Chamber of the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia observes that two recent articles published in The Cambodia Daily contain confidential information relating to matters of which the Pre-Trial Chamber is currently seised (“the Matters”).¹

1. The Pre-Trial Chamber reminds all parties in Case 002 of the following:

- a) A filing party may propose that a document be classified as ‘Public’ in accordance with the provisions of the Practice Direction on the Classification and Management of Case-Related Information. However, until the issuance of the Closing Order and the determination of any appeal against the Closing Order, the Pre-Trial Chamber shall consider whether the proposed classification is appropriate and, if not, determine the appropriate classification.²
- b) Subject to a different classification in accordance with a Court decision, filings to the Pre-Trial Chamber are in principle confidential until the Chamber has decided on the matter.³
- c) The Pre-Trial Chamber determined that the appropriate classification of the Matters is ‘Confidential.’
- d) ‘Confidential’ “means open only to the Judges, the Co-Prosecutors, lawyers for the civil parties, defence counsel, authorised court staff and any other person expressly given access by the Court.”⁴ The Pre-Trial Chamber did not give The Cambodia Daily access to any part of the Matters.
- e) The duty of confidentiality states:

All persons having access to confidential or strictly confidential information are under a duty of confidentiality. They shall not disclose such
