

Annex 2
Conditions of judicial supervision imposed in cases of suspension of trial proceedings on grounds of lack of fitness

Cases/The Accused	ICTY				ICTR	SPSC
	Talić	Stanišić	Kovačević	Đukić	Serugendo	Nahak
Diagnosis	Terminal cancer	Pouchitis, Osteoporosis, Kidney stones and deep depression	Paranoid psychosis	Terminal cancer	Terminal illness	Undiagnosed mental disturbance
Conditions of judicial supervision imposed	Stay within confines of municipality except medical care	Stay within the municipality	Transferred to a medical treatment facility as an inpatient	Keep the Registry informed of his address and of any subsequent changes to his address	Subject to a modified regime of detention (specific details confidential)	Report to the nearest police station to his residence
	Inform the Registry if he leave for medical care	Give address and consent to local authorities verifying whereabouts	Prohibition on leaving the premises of the mental health facility	Send periodic medical reports on his condition		Refrain from contacting or intimidating the victims or their families
	Daily contact the police and monthly report to the Registry	Undergo medical treatment	Not to contact victims or witnesses	Respond to any summons from the Tribunal if his medical condition permits		Remain in East Timor
	Not to travel to municipalities covered by the indictment unless authorised by the Trial Chamber	Monthly psychiatric reports	Not to discuss his case with anyone other than his doctors and counsel			Be present at all judicial proceedings
	Surrender passport	Weekly report on his condition by treating doctors (if admitted to hospital)	Compliance with order of the terms or termination of his provisional release
	Surrender driving license	Surrender passport
	Consent to national authorities verifying his presence within the confines of municipality	Not to contact co-accused, witnesses or victims
	Consent to the Registry having access to him at any time	Not to discuss case with anyone other than his counsel
	Consent to have monthly medical examination by a doctor	Continue to co-operate with the Tribunal
	Not to contact co-accused	Comply with any requirements of national authorities
	Not to contact victims or witnesses	Return to the Tribunal at the time the Tribunal may order
	Not to discuss his case with anyone other than his counsel	Comply with order varying the terms of or terminating provisional release
	Not to occupy any official position	Daily report to the police (if not admitted to the hospital)
	Comply with any requirements by the national authorities	Police's daily verification of his presence at hospital (if admitted to hospital)
	Comply with any order and/or condition of the Trial Chamber
	Return to the Tribunal at the time the Trial Chamber may order
Comply with any order of the Trial Chamber varying the terms of, or terminating the provisional release						