In brief answer to your two questions, Judge Cartwright has raised the access to the shared drive issue with Mr. Rosandhaug, and the issue is under consideration (the barriers in this regard are apparently largely technical, but a strong case was made that it would be worthwhile to ensure remote access for all those who need it). We will keep you posted. I envisage that the schedule for the next batch of witnesses and experts will be issued next week. Have a nice weekend. Dear Ms. Lamb,

We do not have any specific questions for this Friday's trial management meeting, but we would appreciate any updates concerning access to the Shared Drive and when we might be informed of the schedule for the next witnesses and experts.

Thank you,
