Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia

Chambres Extraordinaires au sein des Tribunaux Cambodgiens

ANNEX A

Case 002/19-09-2007/ECCC

[Date]

TO: [Witness' Name, Address, and Date of Birth]

ASSURANCE REGARDING NON-PROSECUTION

You have been summoned to appear as a witness before the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC). The purpose of your testimony is to assist the judges of the ECCC find the truth about the events which took place in Cambodia during the period of 17 April 1975 to 6 January 1979.

The ECCC is the only court of law in Cambodia which can prosecute persons who are suspected of committing crimes during this period. These individuals must be senior leaders of Democratic Kampuchea or those most responsible for the crimes committed during that period.

The purpose of this letter is to inform you that:

1. We will not initiate any prosecutions against you for any event which took place in Cambodia during the period of 17 April 1975 to 6 January 1979.
2. Under current Cambodian law, you cannot be prosecuted in any other Cambodian national court for any event which took place in Cambodia during the period of 17 April 1975 to 6 January 1979.

As a witness, you have the legal duty to tell the Court the truth, the whole truth and only the truth. The purpose of this assurance is to enable you to speak openly and honestly before the Court, without any fear of prosecution.

A copy of this assurance will be placed on the Case File in this case, as a record that the assurance was given to you.
