MAY IT PLEASE THE TRIAL CHAMBER

1. On 3 June 2011, the Trial Chamber gave to the parties in Case 002 directives with regard to the lists of proposed witnesses in preparation for the initial hearing.¹
2. In order to comply with the Chamber's requirement to be brief, Mr KHIEU Samphan has chosen to present the classifications and, where pertinent, additional explanations requested by way of tables, which are annexed hereto.
 - i) “In relation to witnesses previously heard before the Co-Investigating Judges (OCIJ): Please indicate, in descending order of relevance and probative value, those witnesses and experts you consider most relevant to these first four trial segments.”
 3. Mr KHIEU Samphan has provided the details requested in Annex 1.
 - ii) “In relation to proposed new witnesses: Please identify, in descending order of relevance and probative value, which of your proposed new witnesses and experts you consider most to be most relevant to these first four trial segments. Please provide the Trial Chamber with your reasons for listing them in the priority indicated (...). You should also indicate why these “new” witnesses and experts were not suggested for interview before the OCIJ (...).”
4. Mr KHIEU Samphan has provided the details and supplementary explanations requested in Annex 2.
