PRESS RELEASE

Victims Support Section organizes a Training of Trainers for Focal Persons, from 21 Provinces, for further training to the Civil Parties in Case 002

Phnom Penh, 25 November 2010: The Victims Support Section (VSS) of the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC) is to organize a Training of Trainers for 120 Focal Persons, from 21 different provinces of Cambodia. This training schedules on 26 November 2010 at Hotel Imperial Garden Phnom Penh Hotel from 8:00am.

This training aims to provide these selected Focal Persons with opportunity to be equipped with effective ways to receive and transfer correct and updated information from the VSS to their fellow Civil Parties in Case 002 regarding their participation.

This program also grants these Focal Persons the opportunity to meet with officials from various offices of the ECCC and officials from the civil societies in order to access more information and to understand more about legal issues related the rights and obligations of Civil Parties in Case 002 and ensuring that these Focal Persons are capable of organizing further trainings among other Civil Parties within their respectively communities/provinces throughout the country.

Please be reminded that the VSS had successfully organized the first Batch of Training for Trainers of Focal Persons, which was held at Hotel Sunway on 05 November 2010.
