Chambres Extraordinaires au sein des Tribunaux Cambodgiens

INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ECCC PRE-TRIAL CHAMBER HEARING

20 November 2007

Rev 2

The Pre-Trial Chamber of the ECCC has scheduled a Public Hearing to open on 20 November 2007. The Chamber has decided to permit a live feed of the proceedings to be given to radio and television stations for public broadcast. Media representatives and the general public are also invited to attend in person.

The hearings will commence at 10.30am on 20 November, and at a time to be determined on any subsequent days set by the judges. All people must be in their designated seats 30 minutes before the opening of the session. On 20 November it is recommended to arrive at the ECCC between 8.30am and 9am in order to leave enough time for security checking and issuance of tickets. Gates will close by 9.45am or when all seats in the court room are fully occupied.

The hearing will take place in the Pre-Trial Chamber, and the public will be able to view the proceedings through audio and video link into the adjacent main Court Room.”

All persons seeking admission to the ECCC must present a proof of identification (including a photo) and must pass through a security check. Please note, no persons under 18 years of age will be admitted to the court. No mobile phones, large bags, food or drink will be permitted in the main court room.

Seats in the main court room have been allocated as follows:

Media - 100 seats for media representatives. Advance registration is required. Deadline Thursday 15 November, 5pm. If these seats are not fully utilised by 10am on the day of the hearing, they will be re-assigned to the general public. For details of media access and facilities see separate media Information Sheet or call Reach Sambath on 012 488156, or Peter Foster on 012 488421.

NGO representatives - 50 seats for national and international NGO representatives (maximum 2 per organisation). Advance registration is required. Deadline Thursday 15 November, 5pm. If these seats are not fully utilised by 10 am on the day of the hearing, they will be re-assigned to the general public.

Groups - 140 seats for groups (maximum 20 per group). Advance registration is required. Deadline Thursday 15 November, 5pm. If these seats are not fully utilised by 10am on the day of the hearing, they will be re-assigned to the general public.

Individual members of the general public are encouraged to register in advance and will be seated on a first come, first served basis. 100 seats have been reserved. Registration is required if you wish to use the ECCC free buses.

Transport - the ECCC will provide free buses for media and public who do not their own means of transport from downtown Phnom Penh to the CCC and return. Buses will leave from in front of the main Phnom Penh Railway Station between 7.30 and 8.00am on each day of the hearing. Advance registration is required.

The Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia are situated in Chaom Chau ,16 kilometres from Phnom Penh, on the left hand side of Route 4. Public and media please enter from the Visitors Gate at the eastern end of the compound.

Facilities - Drinking water will be provided in the hallway outside the court room. No food or drink is allowed in the court room. Food will be available for purchase.

Toilets are provided in the court building and the car park.

Parking will be provided for visitors to the ECCC with their own buses or cars.

Assistance for those with disabilities will be provided, including wheelchair access.
