D11/382	14-VSS-00030	CHIN Simán	ឆិន ស៊ីម៉ាន		The Applicant described the following: enslavement of Applicant and her family in Takeo Province from 1976 and thereafter; disappearance of Applicant's father from Takeo Province in 1978. Whilst it is recognised that these are traumatising events, they do not relate to any matter which would permit the Applicant to be joined as a Civil Party, as they fall outside of the scope of the Case.	Kampot	កំពត	Chet Vanly
D11/383	14-VSS-00014	HENG Navy	ហេង ណាវី		The Applicant described the following: in the VIF, the Applicant stated that her father and her grandparents died due to starvation; that her aunts, her uncles and her cousins were murdered in Kampot Province in 1977 and 1978. In the supplementary information dated 2010, she alleged that her grandfather was murdered on accusation of being Vietnamese in Kampot Province. Finally, in the supplementary information dated 2013, the Applicant stated that her grandfather, her father her cousins, her aunt and uncle were murdered at the Durian Plantation in Prey Nop District, Kampong Som Province in 1978. In these conditions and given the inconsistency of the information, the Applicant does not establish that it is more likely than not to be true that she suffered as a consequence of one of the crimes charged.	Kampot	កំពត	Chet Vanly
D11/384	14-VSS-00016	OUCH Sakom	ឡុច សាកុម		The Applicant described the following: in the VIF, the Applicant stated that her siblings were murdered in Takeo and Pursat Provinces. In the supplementary information, she stated that her siblings were murdered at Bet Trang worksite in early 1978. Given the inconsistency of the information, the Applicant does not establish that it is more likely than not to be true that she suffered as a consequence of one of the crimes charged.	Kampot	កំពត	Chet Vanly
D11/385	14-VSS-00017	PRUM Samon	ប្រុំ សាម៉ុន		In the VIF, the Applicant described the following: forced labour; inhumane living conditions; the murder of Applicant's four brothers in Kampot Province, the death of Applicant's brother, sister, father and grandfather due to illness in Kampot Province, and death by drowning of Applicant's brother in Kampot Province. In the supplementary information, she stated that all of her aforementioned family members, including her aunts and uncles, were sent to the Durian plantation and disappeared from there. In addition, the Applicant was born in 1975 and it is not credible that she was forced to work. Given the inconsistency of the information provided by the Applicant, it is not established that it is more likely than not to be true that she suffered as a consequence of one of the crimes charged.	Kampot	កំពត	Chet Vanly
D11/389	14-VSS-00031	MEAS Sean	មេស ស៊ែន		The Applicant described the following: enslavement, inhumane living condition and other inhumane acts in Kampong Trach District, Kampot Province. The Applicant witnessed the rape of women who worked in her mobile unit by the unit chief; forced disappearance of her uncle and her father in 1978 in Kampot Province. Whilst it is recognised that these are traumatising events, they do not relate to any matter which would permit the Applicant to be joined as a Civil Party, as they fall outside of the scope of the Case.	Kampot	កំពត	Chet Vanly
D11/390	14-VSS-00032	DOEK Seuyas	ដុក ស៊ីយ៉ាស		The Applicant described the following: enslavement, other inhumane acts at various locations, inhumane living conditions and persecution of Cham in Tram Kak District, Takeo Province; imprisonment and disappearance of her husband at Kraing Ta Chan security centre in September 1978. Whilst it is recognised that these are traumatising events, they do not relate to any matter which would permit the Applicant to be joined as a Civil Party, as they fall outside of the scope of the Case.	Kampot	កំពត	Chet Vanly
D11/391	14-VSS-00012	MAO Sophâl	ម៉ៅ សុផល		The Applicant described her forced marriage in 1978, as the Applicant was born in 1967 this is not credible, unless a mistake on her ID card regarding her birthdate is established. In her VIF, she stated that her uncles were murdered in Kampot Province in 1977, while in the supplementary information, she alleged that her uncles were murdered at the Durian plantation, in Kampong Som Province in 1978. Given these inconsistencies, it can not be established that it is more likely than not to be true that she suffered as a consequence of one of the crimes charged.	Kampot	កំពត	Chet Vanly
D11/324	13-VSS-00099	MEAS Un	មេស ឆន់		The Applicant described working in Phnom Penh, printing newspapers and magazines; enslavement in 1978 in Bakan District, Pursat Province; death of Applicant's father in 1975 due to inadequate medical care (unspecified location); murder of Applicant's brothers in 1978 in Prey Veng Province in unclear circumstances; disappearance of Applicant's other relatives in Prey Veng Province. Whilst this is traumatising, it does not relate to any matter which would permit the Applicant to be joined as a Civil Party, as they fall outside of the scope of the Case.	Prey Veng	ប្រៃសណីយ៍	Chet Vanly
D11/326	13-VSS-00101	HEL Oun	ហេល ឡុន		The Applicant described the following: enslavement of Applicant and other inhumane acts at various worksites in Prey Veng Province; murders of Applicant's uncle, two daughters, a son-in-law, brother-in-law; forced marriage of Applicant's daughter; brother-in-law was a soldier he understands was purged and imprisoned at S-21. Whilst it is recognised that these are traumatizing events, the facts provided do not relate to any matter which would permit the Applicant to be joined as a Civil Party, as they fall outside of the scope of the Case.	Prey Veng	ប្រៃសណីយ៍	Chet Vanly

D11/332	13-VSS-00286	KHUN Samith	យុន សាមីត	The Applicant described the following: enslavement and other inhumane acts at Prey Veng Province from 1975-1979; murder of Applicant's sister in-law and three nieces/nephews in Prey Veng Province in 1976 (persecution of the Vietnamese); imprisonment of Applicant's older brother in Prey Veng Province in 1978 (husband of the Vietnamese wife and children taken away in 1976); disappearance of another of the Applicant's siblings-in-law and their children from Prey Veng Province; disappearance of two of Applicant's brothers-in-law from Pursat Province in 1977; murder of another of Applicant's brother and sister-in-law and four nieces/nephews in Pursat Province in 1975. Based on the VIF and Supplementary Information, the facts are inconsistent and it cannot be concluded that it is more likely than not to be true that the Applicant suffered as a result of one of the crimes charged. In addition, the facts fall outside of the scope of the Case.	Prey Veng	ក្រុង	Chet Vanly
D11/333	13-VSS-00499	NEANG Lay	នាង លាយ	The Applicant described the following: Applicant's brother was a soldier in 1975-1978 in Division 4, stationed in Kandal Province; enslavement of Applicant's brother in Kampong Chhnang airfield, and subsequent murder in 1978; Applicant's other brothers were also killed at the airfield. Whilst it is recognised that these are traumatizing events, the facts provided do not relate to any matter which would permit the Applicant to be joined as a Civil Party, as they fall outside of the scope of the Case.	Prey Veng	ក្រុង	Chet Vanly
D11/339	13-VSS-00517	SOK Pich	សុខ ប៊ិច	The Applicant described the following: enslavement of Applicant's husband (a Division 4 soldier) at Kampong Chhnang airfield in 1978 and subsequent murder; the Applicant's brothers were equally killed there. Whilst it is recognised that these are traumatizing events, the facts provided do not relate to any matter which would permit the Applicant to be joined as a Civil Party, as they fall outside of the scope of the Case File.	Prey Veng	ក្រុង	Chet Vanly
D11/377	13-VSS-00742	KHEV Sloth	ខេវ ស្លត	The Applicant described the following: murder of Applicant's brothers in Bakan District, Pursat Province in late 1978; death of Applicant's parents due to exhaustion, subsequent to the DK Regime. Whilst it is recognised that these are traumatising events, they do not relate to any matter which would permit the Applicant to be joined as a Civil Party, as they fall outside of the scope of the Case.	Prey Veng	ក្រុង	Chet Vanly
D11/378	13-VSS-00743	CHAN Ouch	ចាន់ ឡុច	The Applicant described the following: enslavement of Applicant's sister and brother-in-law, and other inhumane acts in Kandieng District, Pursat Province at unspecified time during the DK Regime; murder of Applicant's brother-in-law at Srae Sdok Commune, Kandieng District, Pursat Province at unspecified time during the DK Regime; murder of Applicant's sister in Cheung Pleung Commune, Bakan District, Pursat Province at unspecified time during the DK Regime; murder of Applicant's three nieces and one nephew at Boeng Bat Kandaol Commune, Bakan District, at unspecified time during the DK Regime; enslavement of Applicant and other inhumane acts at Pradlat Commune, Kampong Trabaek District, Prey Veng Province throughout the DK Regime. Whilst it is recognised that these are traumatising events, the facts provided do not relate to any matter which would permit the Applicant to be joined as a Civil Party, as the Application falls out of the scope of the Case.	Prey Veng	ក្រុង	Chet Vanly
D11/325	13-VSS-00100	BÉN Touch	ប៊ែន តូច	The Applicant described the following: imprisonment of Applicant's brother-in-law at S-21 in 1975; enslavement in 1975 until 1978 in Bakan District, Pursat Province; imprisonment and disappearance of Applicant's parents in 1976 (unspecified location); death of Applicant's older sister after giving birth in 1976 in Bakan District; murder of Applicant's brothers in 1977 in Moug Ruessei District, Battambang Province. Whilst this is traumatising, it cannot be established that it is more likely than not to be true that he suffered as a consequence of one of the crimes charged.	Pursat	រោងចក់	Chet Vanly
D11/328	12-VSS-00655	SÂM Yan	សំ យ៉ាន	The Applicant described the following: death by starvation of Applicant's father and her younger brother in mid-1976 in Bakan District, Pursat Province; murder of her uncle and her four cousins and death by illness of her aunt in-law in Battambang District, Battambang Province; forced marriage, enslavement and inhumane living conditions of Applicant at Battambang District, Battambang and Kampong Speu Provinces in 1978; murder of her husband, the chief of a Regiment, in S-21 (her husband was arrested in Battambang Province in 1977). Whilst it is recognised that these are traumatizing events, the facts provided do not relate to any matter which would permit the Applicant to be joined as a Civil Party, as they fall outside of the scope of the Case.	Pursat	រោងចក់	Chet Vanly
D11/323	12-VSS-00796	KY Pao	គី ប៉ៅ	The Applicant described the following: enslavement throughout the DK Regime in Pursat Province; imprisonment, ill-treatment and murder of Applicant's parents at Kbal Chheu Puk security center, Pursat Province in 1978; murder of Applicant's uncle at S-21 in Phnom Penh. Whilst it is recognised that these are traumatising events, they do not relate to any matter which would permit the Applicant to be joined as a Civil Party, as they fall outside of the material scope of the Case.	Siem Reap	រៀម	Chet Vanly
D11/327	13-VSS-00111	CHAN Yoeurn	ចាន់ យ៉ួន	The Applicant described the following: enslavement in Siem Reap Province; murder of Applicant's husband in 1977 in Siem Reap Province; imprisonment and ill-treatment, and eventually death in Phnom Penh of Applicant's brother, assigned to drive soldiers in Kampong Speu Province in 1978. Whilst it is recognised that these are traumatizing events, the facts provided do not relate to any matter which would permit the Applicant to be joined as a Civil Party, as they fall outside of the scope of the Case. D11/538	16-VSS-00030	SIENG Ren	ស៊ិង រេន		The Application contains contradicting information: in a first document, the Applicant described the following: death of her husband due to exhaustion in 1977 in Chamkar Leu District, Kampong Cham Province; murder of Applicant's brothers in 1977 in Chamkar Leu District. In a second document, she described: death of her husband in 1976 at an unstated location and murder of her brothers in 1976 at Tuol Beng and Wat Anghuonh Dei, Kampong Siem District, Kampong Cham Province. Whilst this is traumatising, these inconsistencies make it impossible to deduce that it is more likely than not to be true that she suffered as a consequence of one of the crimes charged.
