Dear Mr Roberts,

By letter of 21 April 2016 and its annexes, Counsel Koppe responded to my letter of 15 March 2016, which contained the complaint brought by the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia concerning, in essence, his conduct in court.

I have considered Counsel Koppe's letter and its annexes. His position is clear to me. I previously sent you the National Guidelines for the Consideration of Complaints by the President of the Bar Association, which set out how I proceed to investigate in response to the Extraordinary Chambers' complaint against Counsel Koppe. The next step in the process entails the Trial Chamber's reply in writing to Counsel Koppe's arguments in defence. The Chamber is at liberty to submit further fresh material in so replying.

I look forward to the Trial Chamber's reply.

Yours sincerely,

[signed]
