- I. Respected Communist Party of Kampuchea worth more than my life
 My respect to Brother Pol, Brother Nuon, Brother Van, Brother Vorn,
 Cadre Kheiu and Hem

Today, 10 April 1977, while I was extremely busy preparing a radio broadcast to memorialize the 2nd anniversary of the great victory of 17 April 1975, cadre Pang called me on the phone to work with Angkar. I was very surprised and did not expect to be arrested by our military. At first, I did not believe that it was the group of cadre Pang. I was not guilty as I did not betray and I was truthful with Angkar. I suspected that some enemies may have implicated me. When arrived at the detention place, the guard in charged asked me if i knew Koy Thuon, Phok Chhay, and Tauch Pheoun. It caught my attention and I was alerted that there must be a betrayer implicating me in order to smash me, I who am loyal, and have dared to sacrifice my own life to protecting the party. Another guard in charge interrogated me about “ the organizing of a new party” which reminded me of review of revolutionary life view at Borey Keila Party School in 11, 1976. I heard Cadre Chhoy discuss Phok Chhay and the organizing of a new party. I never thought that the enemy would use such an evil strategy. I am trying to prove my loyalty to Angkor in order to get a fair judgement.

I firmly reassure the party that I have never betrayed the party at all, I have never been involved with the CIA, the Vietnamese or Seung Ngoc Thanh's agent or liberalists.
